Overview

Daniel is a Registered Liquidator with over 19 years' experience in all forms of corporate restructuring and insolvency. Daniel has been responsible for several large scale voluntary administrations and receiverships, many of which resulted in the business continuing in operation, either through a restructure or sale as a going concern.

Daniel has also acted as a Small Business Restructuring Practitioner for several small to medium size entities and assisted those businesses in successfully restructuring their affairs via the small business restructuring regime. Daniel has developed specific expertise in the transport, construction, agriculture and wine industries through his involvement in both formal and informal assignments.

As an experienced practitioner, Daniel regularly provides advisory and restructuring services to various stakeholders. In addition, Daniel has significant experience in winding up solvent entities and assisting in the restructure of corporate groups to simplify structures in a tax effective manner.
